A SECRET GARDEN

Protected from prying eyes a private pool, quiet lunch spot and barbecue area.

Staying in this home means a full immersion in an environment where everything is deeply linked to the land and the history of the place.

The delicacies, the materials, the objects collected represent the tangible part of our territory, as well as the music, poetry and art represent the soul and the most intimate part of it.

THE LANGHE

The house is located in one of the historical villages of the Barolo wine area: the Langhe. This fog-kissed, undulating landscape just a couple hours southwest of Milan is the home of two of Italy's most sought after red wines — Barolo and Barbaresco — the Slow Food movement, a myriad of medieval castles, the elusive white truffle, a proud and hearty cuisine, and, to top it all off, UNESCO recently included the Langhe on their World Heritage List. An area that is the true heart of Piemonte with its enchanted villages, stunning landscapes, great wines and excellent food. The home embodies local culture, with memories of this special land represented in its each and every detail.
